Capricorn (December 22 – January 19) January 2012 - Overview

Be careful not to get caught in the crossfire if you meddle in the affairs of others. This is not to say that you should avoid aiding friends in need, but care should be taken that you don't get caught in the fallout. Career advancement could come easily if you are frank and honest in your dealings with others. A hobby could take your mind off your worries.

Aquarius (January 20 – February 18) January 2012 - Overview

Problems relating to the health of those close to you could cause you some concern, but will be less troublesome if you keep on top of the necessary information. A strong creative urge could overwhelm you and cause you to produce some startling (to others) projects which will be well received. Job security may no longer be a major concern as a result of a letter.
